ICG Introduces Redesigned Website

EVANSVILLE, IN – Innovative Consulting Group, LLC (ICG) introduces a redesigned website. The website redesign has been a major component of ICG's branding strategies established in 2007, reflecting the company's growth and stability in the healthcare industry while establishing a stronger connection with customers and strengthening its overall position in the marketplace. ICG will be celebrating its 6th anniversary in the spring.

The redesigned www.InnovativeCG.com website features:

- Enhanced navigation, graphics and design
- Newsletters, case studies, client testimonials and white papers
- Photos of the practice directors and executive management
- Map of client locations
- Individual practice pages with more detailed information
- Listing of current ICG employment opportunities

ICG was founded in 2002, by CEO, Wayne Kinney. ICG provides healthcare IT consulting services primarily in the following major areas: Siemens Medical Systems and applications, McKesson systems and software applications, Cerner systems and software applications, data center consolidation, system integration and general project management services. Additional information about ICG is available at www.InnovativeCG.com.
