Innovative Consulting Group appoints Chief Nursing Officer

EVANSVILLE, IN – Innovative Consulting Group, LLC (ICG) announces the appointment of Trish Gallagher to the newly created position of Chief Nursing Officer (CNO).

Jerry Morgan, V.P. of Business Development, is delighted to announce that Trish Gallagher has accepted an expanded role as CNO. Since joining ICG in 2007, Trish has served in a number of capacities, including Cerner Practice Director and Senior Consultant. In her new role, she will be instrumental in the execution and direction of ICG's Clinical Optimization Service offering to be announced later this week. The new service will be of tremendous value in helping clients to identify specific process improvement projects and reengineer the process maximizing the use of their technology or to validate that their current optimization efforts have achieved maximum ROI. Trish will also continue to be responsible for engagement management for Cerner customers, sales support, and the growth of the Cerner Practice.

Trish has played a major part in the growth of the ICG Cerner Practice by developing relationships with new clients and strengthening existing relationships. The newly-created position will reflect the depth of experience and expertise Trish has brought to ICG, which includes over 20 years as an RN with quality and clinical system implementation experience for large-scale health care organizations and a background in computer programming. She has presented nationally at numerous Healthcare IT conferences, including Rutgers and ANIA, and has developed a Clinical Support strategy for the EHR at a multi-facility health organization. In addition, she has Clinical Experience in ED, Pediatrics and NICU and has played various roles in HIT projects including Clinical Transformation, CPOE, Clinical Documentation Leadership and Project Management. Recently, her focus has been on the integration of quality initiatives with EMR Strategies.

Trish received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing from McMaster University where she graduated with honors. In addition, she has held a National Certification in Healthcare Quality (CPHQ) since 1998. She is currently attending Touro University International to obtain her Master's of Science Degree in Health Informatics.

ICG was founded in 2002, by CEO, Wayne Kinney. ICG provides healthcare IT consulting services primarily in the Siemens® Medical Systems and applications, McKesson® systems and software applications, Cerner® systems and software applications, Epic® systems and software applications, data center consolidation, system integration and general project management services. Additional information about ICG is available at www.InnovativeCG.com.
