ICG Announces Plans for New Epic Practice

EVANSVILLE, IN – Innovative Consulting Group, LLC (ICG) announces plans for an Epic practice and introduces Todd Shavor, Epic Practice Director.

ICG announced today a strategic decision to expand its service offerings with the addition of an Epic practice. The decision will enable ICG to continue to successfully compete in the Healthcare IT consulting marketplace and is an important step in the growth of the company. ICG has been successful with its current Siemens, Cerner and McKesson practices. The company will be celebrating its 7th anniversary next spring and plans to actively participate in Epic and quickly provide leadership in this emerging business segment.

Jerry Morgan, V.P. of Business Development, is delighted to announce that Todd Shavor has joined ICG in the role of Epic Practice Director. Todd is responsible for engagement management for Epic customers, sales support, and the development and growth of the Epic practice. He is an Epic Certified Ambulatory consultant and brings over 10 years of experience in managing multiple projects through a complete implementation lifecycle. Most recently, Todd worked as a consultant holding the position of Lead Ambulatory Principal Trainer for Baylor College of Medicine. Previously, he sub-contracted through CTG for the Harris County Hospital District as an Ambulatory Implementation Manager and successfully led them through sub-specialty rollouts and the development of workflow analysis sessions while overseeing several strategic objectives.

ICG was founded in 2002, by CEO, Wayne Kinney. ICG provides healthcare IT consulting services primarily in the Siemens® Medical Systems and applications, McKesson® systems and software applications, Cerner® systems and software applications, Epic® systems and software applications, data center consolidation, system integration and general project management services.
